

MOVEQUICK - Montoya, Reed.

You said to move slow, 'cause you've done this a time or two before and you know I've done too.

But I run hot and I like to move fast 'cause I've learned nothing here is meant to last.
So behold, this for you...

I can lead you to a life you never knew. I will help you see the simplicity.

Now she start slowing up speed, well I got every single thing you need.

The soul shall set you free.

Skee-dat-doot-dat We are the way you can accelerate.

I still say...

I can lead you to a life you never knew. I will help you see the simplicity.

I'm nowhere close. I feel you paid the cost. Tripped up I'm stumbling, drifting into space.
Far place from here. Just wishing you'd think how we'd feel to be lost.

I can't stand the madness. I crave you're desire. Feel like I'm seeing love in the air.

I'm striving to prove it. Can it really be true? Fear is not an option. I'm starting to see a different kind of you.

Let this be a lesson. Let it be the last time that you learn it.
